Long Bio:

Deborah is an attorney and former homeschool parent with a passion for writing. Born and raised in Brooklyn, New York, Deborah was inspired by her son, as well as her young nieces and nephews to turn her passion for writing short stories and poems into crafting children's books. Understanding the importance of representation in children's literature and the need for diversity, Deborah is driven by her vision of bringing stories that feature relatable, inspiring, and diverse characters not only to the children in her life, but to children everywhere. Deborah's debut book, 'Zorah and the Very Big Question', was released in June 2021. Deborah also released 'When You Give a Girl a Puppy...' in 2022 which was featured on Ryan Reynold's new show 'Bedtime Stories with Ryan'. 'Summer Island', which is a Caribbean adventure to meet her father's family, was released in 2023.
